

State of Global Authentication Survey shows:

Nearly half of Gen Z and Millennials have had their social media account passwords hacked

Gen Z & Millennials lead in hardware security key usage, relying less on passwords than other generations

Generations agree:

42%

question whether organizations are doing enough to protect their data are most concerned about AI's role in cyberattacks, noting sophisticated scams